Day 2

We start our trip with city tour around Tbilisi to explore various layers of its history and culture. First we visit the Museum of Fine Arts, then continue to the historical district of Metekhi to visit the Assumption Church located on the picturesque hill. One of the most famous city's landmarks is the Bridge of Peace - steel and glass modern bridge, laid on the river Kura. The cable car takes us to Narikala fortress to enjoy a marvelous panoramic view of the city. Tour leads us to the sulfur baths – a complex of royal baths of XVII-XIX centuries, one of the most famous sights of the Old Town. No trip in Tbilisi is complete without strolling around cozy Shardeni Street with cafes, boutiques and fashionable galleries. After enjoying the beautiful waterfall in the Botanical Garden, we reach Mtatsminda Mount by the funicular railway to have a bird's eye view of Tbilisi.
