Day 2

We start our exploration of the treasures of Georgia with a visit to Ethnography Museum - located on open air territory on Turtle Lake. On its territory, traditional houses and farm buildings are exhibited, which are collected from all regions of Georgia. After, we have some great walking around the Old Town and visit Meydan Square and sulfur baths (XVII-XIX centuries). The other historical place on our way is the district of Metekhi. Here, on the picturesque hill is located the Assumption Church. We continue our trip to the modern Bridge of Peace - steel and glass bridge, laid on the river Kura. We reach the fortress Narikala by the cable car and enjoy breathtaking panoramic view, then going down by foot via Botanical Street and visit Jumah mosque. No city tour to Tbilisi will be complete without strolling around cozy Shardeni Street with cafes, boutiques and fashionable galleries. Our city tour ends with a visit to Mtatsminda Mount, which is located in the city center and is a true symbol of Tbilisi.
