Day 2

Religious tour through Georgia starts with city tour around Tbilisi, where Orthodox churches, Great Synagogue and Jumah Mosque are situated close to each other. First, we visit Tsminda Sameba Cathedral – the main cathedral of the Georgian Orthodox Church and the highest temple in Georgia. Then we have a trip to the historical district of Metekhi to explore Catholic Church of the Ascension of the Virgin Mary built in the XIII century. We reach the fortress Narikala by the cable car and enjoy breathtaking panoramic view. Our next spiritual sight is the only mosque still in use in Tbilisi - Jumah Mosque, where Sunni and Shia Muslims pray side by side. We continue to Sioni Cathedral named after Mount Zion in Jerusalem. The cathedral keeps the Grapevine cross of St.Nino, which is the major symbol of Georgian Orthodox Church. Our next stop is Anchiskhati Church, the oldest surviving church in Tbilisi, built in the VI century. Tour leads us to St Peter and Paul Catholic Church, which was built in XIX century. Armenian Norashen Holy Mother of God Church, which was built in XV century, is our last religious place to visit.

Day 3

After breakfast we drive to Mtskheta - the ancient town and the first capital of Georgia. Here Christianity was declared as the state religion and now Mtskheta is the cult place for all Georgians. First we visit to Svetitskoveli Cathedral – one of the principle cathedrals of Georgian Orthodox Church and UNESCO heritage site. Here is buried Christ's robe. Tour continues to Samtavro Transfiguration Orthodox Church and Nunnery of Nino in Mtskheta, built in the IV century by King Mirian III of Iberia. We climb up the hill to Jvari Monastery to explore the amazing symbol of the Georgian church architecture. According to the legend, at the site of the monastery St.Nino established one of her three crosses. The name «jvari» is translated from Georgian as «a cross».
